Guest Speakers:
JEDI COMMITTEE OF LWVNM

Annual Meeting – October 2020

Please join us on Zoom for the Annual Meeting of the League of Women Voters on Saturday, October 3 at 10 a.m. This is one of our most important meetings of the year since we will elect officers and conduct other business.

Please look at your April Voter for a list of the business before us. As you may remember, we postponed that meeting because of the Covid-19 lockdown. Since then we have learned to conduct virtual meetings on Zoom. Your invitation with log-in information is on the next page.

We have an interesting panel of speakers for this meeting, the JEDI committee of the League of Women Voters of New Mexico. JEDI stands for Justice, Equality, Diversity and Inclusion.

We have frequently discussed among ourselves the need to bring younger and more diverse members into the League. Our tradition of study and consensus, then advocacy of issues is not always appealing to younger people in a hurry, so Irene Epp, Rebecca Alvarez and Katie Christianson will do their best to give us ideas. Here's a little about them. Irene is the JEDI Coordinator.

Irene Epp joined the League in August 2019 after she returned from 26 years overseas as an educator at US Embassy schools in Asia and Africa. She served as Head of School in four African nations, Mali, Zambia, the Democratic Republic of Congo, and Sierra Leone. She also served as a school administrator in Cairo, Egypt and Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, after one year teaching AP English in Dhaka, Bangladesh. Before moving overseas, Irene was the Deputy Head of School at Santa Fe Prep. Irene earned a PhD in American Literature at the University of Colorado, Boulder.

Rebecca Álvarez is Assistant Professor of Sociology and Criminal Justice at New Mexico Highlands University. Her research interests are in forms of gender violence and diversity and representation in social movements. Her article, "The Contours of Color at the World Social Forum: Reflections on Racialized Politics, Representation, and the Global Justice Movement," was published in Critical Sociology. Dr. Álvarez was previously vice-president of New Mexicans for Money Out of Politics (NMMOP), a grass-roots organization that has partnered in advocacy with the League of Women Voters on legislative issues around money in politics. As a member of the Outreach Committee for NMMOP, she organized and led a workshop training covering strategies for reaching out successfully to diverse populations in New Mexico. Her book Vigilante Gender Violence: Social Class, the Gender Bargain, and Mob Attacks on Women Worldwide is out in September of this year from Routledge.

Katie Christianson is a Santa Fe transplant from Washington state. Passionate about amplifying the voices of marginalized people, she has made several careers around speaking up, from preschool teacher to community organizer. Most recently, she joined a remarkable team to open the first rural southwestern Washington public charter school, a middle school founded to serve kids impacted by poverty and other trauma. She is finishing her Bachelor's Degree in Sociology at New Mexico Highlands University with an emphasis in Gender and Women's Studies. Katie lives with her husband, her adult son, and their giant dog, Archie. When she's not writing for her blog or her schoolwork, she skis, rides her motorcycle, and performs with her band, Katie and the Good Things.

The JEDI Committee has been working hard all summer to assess the way the League of Women Voters can work to diversify. This is something the league desperately needs to do if we are going to grow and continue to be an important part of life in our communities.

We hope everyone can attend. This meeting is scheduled for 10 to noon.

We will look forward to seeing you online!

IN MEMORIAM....JUSTICE RUTH BADER GINSBURG

When United States Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg died September 17, 2020, we lost a key ally in preserving the rights of voters. In her remarkable dissent in the 2013 decision in Shelby County v. Holder, she sided with all of us who know that voting rights are still under attack.

In the Shelby case the majority of the Supreme Court struck down a huge section of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, which was enacted to ensure no citizen would be denied the right to vote because of race or color. It created a rule that applied to states and political subdivisions with a history of significant discrimination against Black voters in the 1960s and 1970s. This discrimination included impossible literacy tests, administered only to Black people and poor white people and devices like Mississippi's notorious soap-bubble test, which required Black voters to correctly guess the number of bubbles in a bar of soap in order to vote. The act prohibited the old discriminatory tests and devices and required those jurisdictions to submit any new changes in their voting procedures—closing or moving polling places, reduction in early voting days, purges to voter rolls—to either the Justice Department or the district court in the District of Columbia for approval before they enacted them, a process called “preclearance.”

In finding the act unconstitutional and ending the preclearance requirement for the covered states and counties, Chief Justice Roberts held that the “blight of racial discrimination in voting” that had “infected the electoral process in parts of our country for nearly a century,” and which the act was designed to address, had been ameliorated by 2013.

Justice Ginsburg knew this was not accurate. That is the dissent in which she uttered the now famous statement: “Throwing out preclearance when it has worked and is continuing to work to stop discriminatory changes is like throwing away your umbrella in a rainstorm because you are not getting wet.” She summarized her dissent from the bench, an unusual move and a sign of deep disagreement, in which she said that the legacy of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the nation’s commitment to justice had been “disserved by today’s decision.”

LEAGUE CALENDAR

All of the following are Zoom meetings. Members will receive invitations on the LWVCNMTopics listserv. Anyone who does not receive an invitation can email president@lwvcnm.org.

October 1 - 5:30 pm LWVCNM Board meeting

October 3 – 10 a.m. ANNUAL MEETING (See your April 2020 Voter for all the details you need for this meeting. If you did not save your copy, go online to lwvcnm.org to download a copy.)

November 5— 5:30 pm LWVCNM Board meeting

November 12—Luncheon meeting Speaker TBD

VERY IMPORTANT DATE IS ELECTION DAY,
NOVEMBER 3, POLLS OPEN 7 AM TO 7 PM.

The deadline for the monthly Voter remains the 15th of each month. Articles and pictures are welcome.

AND A WORD TO OUR NON-TECHY MEMBERS: Do not be concerned that you do not “do online stuff.” We are working on ways to make these available to you too! This may be through pairing you with a “buddy.” It may be that several members can view the sessions in the conference room at our new office building. Or if you just need a little help using Zoom or whatever meeting software we use, several of our Board members, our Webmaster, or other volunteers may be sent to help you. And summaries of the presentations will appear in the Voter issued after the date of the speaker. I am sure other ways “to make this happen” and keep us all safe will evolve as we proceed. Contact Karen Wentworth at kwentworth17@comcast.net if you need help.

OFFICE HOURS

Starting September 14:

M-W-F 10 am-4 pm

(will change as we get closer to Election Day)

MEMO FROM OFFICE MANAGERLINDA ADCOX-KIMMEL....

Effective September 14th, our office is now open on Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. I have lined up volunteers for the 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. morning shift through October 2nd. As the Office Manager, I am continuing to work in the office from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. There is a need for more volunteers to work the morning shift for the months of October and November. If you have never worked in the office, you will enjoy the calls from voters, most of which are about absentee ballots, voter registration, the safety of mailing ballots via the USPS, and more recently volunteering to help out by "getting out the vote," driving voters to the polls, or working at the polls. Everyone who has been to the new office likes its open, airy appearance. You can see the plants in the atrium from our office; and the light from the three windows is very nice. There is an actual conference room downstairs to which we have access; and we have instituted COVID-safe procedures for the office. If anyone is interested, please let me know via email to office@lwvcnm.org.

Parliamentary Pointers..... Skillful Presiding....Carrying out the Agenda

The presiding officer, usually the president of the organization, can skillfully set the tone for any meeting. In presiding, this officer can lead the group through a productive session.

Call to order on time! State "The October meeting of the League will come to order."

Quorum – Determine if the quorum stated in the bylaws is present; presence of quorum does not have to be stated at the meeting.

Approval of Agenda – "Are there corrections to the agenda? (pause) If there are no further corrections, the agenda is adopted as printed/corrected."no motion is needed as this is an assumed motion.

Adoption of Standing Rules – "You have a copy of the standing rules recommended by the executive committee. If there is no objection, the rules will be adopted. There being no objection, the rules are adopted for this meeting."

Reading/Approval of Minutes – "Are there corrections to the minutes?... If there are no further corrections, the minutes are approved as printed/read." (an assumed motion).

Reports of Officers – Call upon officers who do have reports. Reports are not adopted.

The treasurer's report is filed.... an annual audit report is adopted. An officer report may recommend a motion; the motion is made by another person, not the officer.

Reports of Boards – The report is not adopted; a motion may be brought forth from a board or executive committee. Because the board/committee is proposing the motion, no second is needed.

Reports of Standing and Special Committees – Committee reports are not adopted; again, a motion may be brought forth and no second is needed if the committee consists of more than one person.

Unfinished Business and General Orders – Items on the agenda from the previous meeting but not completed at that meeting or items postponed from the previous meeting. The items are introduced using a motion. (Old Business is no longer used!!)

New Business – "The next business in order is New Business." The presider recognizes members who are entitled to the floor....after they stand/raise their hand. When motions are made, the presider states the motion and conducts discussion/debate (covered in a later column).

The presider protects the group/assembly from obviously frivolous/dilatory motions and enforces the rules relating to debate....No Getting OFF the Subject!!

The presider expedites business by asking for motions and assuming motions (covered in a later column).

Adjournment – Usually, no motion is needed. "If there is no further business, the meeting is adjourned."

Presiding Tips

1. Knowledge is strength. A presider who is familiar with correct usage of parliamentary procedure can skillfully guide a group through many issues in a short time.
2. A skillful presider maintains control over the progress of the meeting...and expedites business by informing the membership of correct procedures....in a diplomatic way!
3. A skillful presider keeps the membership informed by stating the specific issue/motion being considered and the necessary steps to complete the business at hand.

Information can be reviewed in Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised, 11th Edition, (RONR) pp. 351-363.

FROM THE DESK OF THE CO-PRESIDENTS.....This has been one of the most difficult election cycles the League of Women Voters of Central New Mexico has faced in recent times. We haven't safely been able to go out to register voters, and some of our normal voter education activities are competing with dozens of new groups also seeking to educate votes in this very controversial election. We can't thank board members enough for their outstanding generosity to the league. Every day you go so much above and beyond what is asked of you. We just wanted to take this change to say Thank You out loud.

Our fundraising messages to the membership raised about $7,000. That is less than the cost of the Voter Guide this year and we have asked Gege to put together a small committee to organize additional fundraising after the general election. Anyone who is interested in serving on the committee should talk with Gege. The Voter Guide effort has been long and arduous. Our great appreciation to everyone who is involved in this effort. We have expanded the guide to include all four counties that we serve and that did increase the cost of the guide slightly. We are still working with Bernalillo and Sandoval Counties to determine whether the guides will be available at the voting convenience centers. Mary Wilson, Ashley Benning, Cheryl Haaker, and Mary Smith have done extraordinary work in putting the guide together, and Jeanne Logsdon and her proofreading committee are preparing to put the finishing touches on the Voter Guide while Lani Desaulniers patiently awaits the printed guide for distribution by her committee.

The APD Forward Coalition expressed interest in participating in the selection process for a new APD Chief by Mayor Keller following the national search for a new Chief to replace Police Chief Geier who is retiring. Recent coalition meetings with the City of Albuquerque Accountability and Oversight Division (reporting to the Mayor) and the Civilian Police Oversight Agency (selected by the City Council) seek a more comprehensive understanding of the minimal improvement by APD line management of discipline of officers when investigation results indicate Excessive Use of Force.

The 9/21/20 Zoom Observer Corps Training for initiation of statewide Observer Corps featured a discussion of the Open Meetings Act provisions by Mary Henrie Smith, LWV CA Observer Fundamentals presented by Jenn Wong and Jennifer Waggoner during the June 2020 LWVUS Convention, and the status of the LWVSNM Observer Corps development by Kathy Brook of LWVSNM, and a discussion of the Checklist, Roles & Responsibilities as well as recommended Report contents. The Training Session was recorded for future LWVNM viewers.

Karen Wentworth and Karen Douglas, Co-Presidents

The LWVNCM printed Voter Guide will be available about October 6. The online Voter Guide is available NOW at Vote411.org.

Our printed Voter Guide will have only 4 questions and answers for each candidate who has opposition. On the online Vote411, you will see the answers to more questions and answers from the opposed candidates as well as from unopposed candidates and candidates for judicial retention.

PLEASE SPREAD THE WORD ABOUT VOTE411.ORG

LWVNM and the local leagues in NM have done a tremendous job bringing voter information to the entire state this year. If you have friends in far-flung counties in NM where there is no local league, tell them to check out Vote411 for voter information.

THE APRIL VOTER PRESENTED THE NOMINATED SLATE OF OFFICIERS AND DIRECTORS FOR THE 2020-21 LEAGUE YEAR. NOW, WE HAVE AN ADDITIONAL NOMINEE TO VOTE ON AT ANNUAL MEETING..... JENNIFER BLACK nominated as Third Vice President.

Jennifer Black retired in 2018, moving to Albuquerque from the Chicago area. Most recently, Jennifer was the Communications Director of a large suburban library. Responsibilities included expanding the Library's marketing profile and public relations function, editing and producing the quarterly newsletter (circulation 46,000), developing the Adult Cultural Enrichment and Film series, and coordinating special events. Previously, Jennifer was Director of Membership and Annual Giving at the Chicago Botanic Garden, the largest membership-based public garden in the nation. With the support of a dynamic team for over a decade, Jennifer was instrumental in tripling the Garden's membership family. Jennifer began her career in Washington, D.C. as a legislative analyst for the Federal Government Affairs Division of the 3M Company, fundraising/voter education for a branch of the Israeli Labor Party, and owner of a retail greenhouse in Tel Aviv, Israel. Following in her mother's footsteps in the League of Women Voters, Jennifer served on the Board of Directors of the same suburban Chicago chapter her mother was involved in for many decades. A graduate of Vassar College with a degree in East Asian Studies and the Chinese language, Jennifer is the mother of three sons (including a set of identical twins), a passionate gardener, and an avid collector of cookbooks.

WOMEN'S RIGHT TO VOTE TIMELINE ↔ LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS®

1920 NM legislature approves the 19th Amendment on February 21, 1920, 32nd of 36 states necessary for ratification. August 26, 1920 is the official certification date in the US Constitution. NM women are among the 27 million women able to vote in November elections.

World War I as rationale. Congress passes 19th Amendment, 41 years after it was introduced and sends to the states for ratification.

1917-1918 Suffragists are arrested and imprisoned for picketing the White House and the Capitol. Hunger strikes and force-feeding in jail cause national outcry.

1915-1916 Suffragists in Santa Fe organize 150 women in an automobile parade to Senator Thomas Catron's home. He opposes suffrage. Julia Brown Asplund, president of the NM Federation of Women's Clubs, Aurora Lucero, and other women speak about breadth of support for suffrage in NM. NM suffragists organize state chapter of the Congressional Union's National Woman's Party, formed by Alice Paul. Nina Otero-Warren becomes a suffrage leader.

1910 NM Constitution required for statehood is ratified. Full suffrage for women is rejected. A provision that grants women the right to vote in school elections contains a caveat that their vote can be revoked if a percentage of county male voters disagree.

1890s Suffrage clubs are formed in several NM towns.

1878 Woman Suffrage Amendment is first introduced into US Congress at the behest of Susan B. Anthony, who voted illegally in 1872.

1848 First Women's Rights Convention, held in Seneca Falls, NY, passes resolution calling for full voting rights for women. Elizabeth Cady Stanton authors the Declaration of Sentiments, modeled on the Declaration of Independence, which excludes women.

Sept. 14, 2020

Greetings Voter Registration Agents:

The Bernalillo County Clerk's Office needs to hire 21 individuals who can assist us as Same Day Voter Registration (SDR) Agents at 7 Early Voting Convenience Centers during the 2020 General Election. You have been selected to be early recruits for this effort because you have attended a Voter Registration Agent training and have a basic understanding of New Mexico voter registration law.

We want to share with you some of the details about this job opportunity:

7 EARLY VOTING CONVENIENCE CENTERS:

- We must hire one SDR Site Agent per site.
- You must be able to commit to working a nine-hour shift every day from Saturday, Oct. 17 through Saturday, Oct. 31. (Early Voting Convenience Centers are closed on Sundays.)

TO BE HIRED:

- A background check and drug test will be administered by the Bernalillo County Clerk's temporary hiring agency, ITSQuest.
- Training is mandatory. SDR Agents will be paid for training on Friday, Oct. 16, 2020. Time and location for this training will be forthcoming. SDR Agents will receive training pay, provided they show up to work at their assigned location.

ASSIGNMENTS:

- The Clerk's Office will attempt to assign Site Agents to locations nearest to their homes.
- Backup SDR Agents will be assigned to work Downtown (in daily 4.5-hour increments Monday through Saturday). These Backup Agents will be utilized as substitutes to Site Agents and to perform other Voter Registration duties. Our Downtown Office is at 1 Civic Plaza on the 6th floor.

COMPENSATION:

- The work is $12 an hour.
- If assigned to the Downtown location, the temporary hiring agency reimburses an employee $2.00 per day maximum for parking. (SDR Agents are responsible for submitting parking receipts directly to the agency at the end of their assignments.)

MaryEllen Smith encourages Voter Registrars to help the County by responding to the above advertisement for help. Poll workers are also needed in Bernalillo and Sandoval County. Apply with Bernalillo County at <https://www.berncoc.gov/clerk/poll-officials.aspx>. In Sandoval County call the Sandoval County Bureau of Elections at 505-

867-7577. In Valencia County, call the Clerk's office at (505) 866-2080. You must be registered to vote in the county in which you want to work. BUT remind all your children and grandchildren that 16 and 17 year olds can be student poll workers. Great training for future voters.

ABSENTEE BALLOTS WILL BE SENT OUT TO VOTERS STARTING OCTOBER 6. DON'T FORGET TO VOTE. IF YOU MAIL YOUR ABSENTEE BALLOT BACK TO THE COUNTY CLERK, ALLOW ENOUGH TIME IN CASE OF POSTAL DELAYS. REMEMBER TO FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS FOR RETURNING YOUR BALLOT.

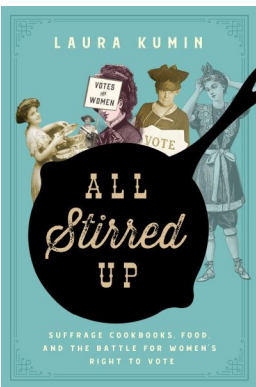

IF YOU DIDN'T GET AROUND TO READING ALL OF THE SUFFRAGE BOOKS WE HAVE TALKED ABOUT IN THIS YEAR'S VOTERS, HERE IS ONE YOU WILL LIKE.....

"Celebrating the 100th anniversary of the Nineteenth Amendment, which guaranteed women the right to vote, All Stirred Up reveals a new side to the history of the suffrage movement.

This book acknowledges the familiar images of the women's suffrage movement: picket signs, flowers, and women in white marching through the streets, but demonstrates how much more there was to the movement.

Ever courageous and creative, suffragists also carried their cause into America's homes through cookbooks and food. Suffragists reached out to women on their own terms, in nonthreatening and accessible ways, and through those women to the men who held the key to their quest for the right to vote. Using charm and wit, the suffragists leveraged their domestic knowledge and used social situations to put people at ease, pioneering grassroots tactics that fed spoonfuls of suffrage to communities through unexpected and unassuming channels. Filled with actual historic recipes ("mix the crust with tact and velvet gloves, using no sarcasm, especially with the upper crust") and the spirited flavor of feminism and food movements of the suffrage era, All Stirred Up carries us back in time. It then celebrates the suffragists anew with modern adaptations of their recipes and stories of how they changed our lives and our world.

Long before women had the vote, they enfranchised themselves through the subversive – and savvy – power of the palate. They won supporters over with recipes from hot cross buns, fish chowder, and spatchcock chicken, to roll jelly cake and brownies. Celebrate them and make a dish or an entire meal from their cookbooks!" (From the author's website: Laurakumin.com)

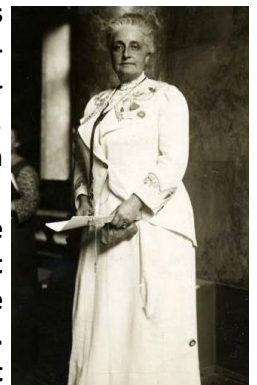

THERE IS A TERRIFIC ARTICLE IN THE JULY 2020 ISSUE OF HADASSAH MAGAZINE about the history of participation by Jewish women in the women suffrage movement...

Read the full article online at: <https://www.hadassahmagazine.org/2020/07/01/jewish-suffragists-white-dresses-yellow-roses/>

Here is an excerpt: "It also speaks to how in some circles, suffrage was the lightning-rod women's issue of its time, much like abortion is today. The elite: Maud Nathan lent her societal influence to the suffrage movement.

"You see these stunning divides even within families," says Nadell. "My favorite characters were Maud Nathan [pictured to the right] and Annie Nathan Meyer, the founder of Barnard College, two sisters of the elite Nathan family." How elite? Maud Nathan was a card-carrying member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, tracing their ancestry to the Colonial era. Their cousins included "New Colossus" poet Emma Lazarus and Supreme Court Justice Benjamin Cardozo.

"And they hated each other," Klapper says of the Nathan sisters. "One was for suffrage and the other was like, 'Not me!' " The activist Maud Nathan lobbied Presidents Theodore Roosevelt and Wilson and led rallies on behalf of the women's vote, while Meyer countered what she called Nathan's "utterly abhorrent" and "noisy" efforts with anti-suffrage speeches at Barnard. Like many elites, Meyer was skeptical about extending the vote to working-class immigrant women. "But then, as soon as she got the right, she became involved with the League of Women Voters," notes Klapper.
